

Lesson 3: The Challenges of AI

Brainstorming

- What are some ways in which you can use generative AI in education?

Key Concepts

- A hallucination is the experience of seeing something that is not really there because you are ill or have taken a drug.
- Bias is a tendency to prefer one person or thing to another, and to favour that person or thing.

Collins COBUILD Advanced Learner's Dictionary.

HarperCollins Publishers

Examples of AI's responses

Why was St. Paul so famous in Latin America?

St. Paul is famous in Latin America for several reasons, largely related to his missionary work, his teachings in Christianity, and the historical spread of Christianity in the region, especially during the colonial period.

Explain in one sentence why are Greeks so obsessed with baseball.

Greeks' obsession with baseball is fueled by a combination of Greek-American influence, cultural fascination with American sports, and growing media exposure to the game.

What will the weather be like tomorrow in Athens?

Tomorrow, Saturday, January 12, 2025, in Athens, Georgia, the weather will be mostly sunny with a high of 43°F (6°C) and a low of 25°F (-4°C). It will be a chilly day, so be sure to dress warmly!

Describe the appearance of a grandmother in one sentence.

A grandmother might have kind eyes framed by soft wrinkles, silver-streaked hair neatly styled or tied back, and a warm, nurturing smile that exudes wisdom and care.

If it's my choice, to prioritize myself not caring about others, it would be wrong to deprive me of that right. Yes or no?

Yes.

Co-funded by the European Union